It's not just another night out...

2009-2010
season

Sit back, relax and be entertained by thrilling and engaging performances that highlight the best of American artists and artistic endeavors. Swing and sway to the legendary songs of Sinatra in My Way: A Musical Tribute to Frank Sinatra, laugh at the screwball comedy of Moonlight and Magnolias, blast to the past again and celebrate the holiday season with the Winter Wonderettes, delight in the genius of Hershey Felder as GEORGE GERSHWIN ALONE and, lastly, be surprised by the selection of our fifth and final play of the season by Artistic Director Andrew Barnicle.

July 7 – August 23, 2009

My Way: A Musical Tribute to Frank Sinatra

Conceived by David Grapes and Todd Olson
Book by Todd Olson
Original Production Directed by David Grapes
Directed by David Grapes

From classic elegance to contemporary "fedora" hipster, Frank Sinatra is the ultimate icon of cool. My Way: A Tribute to Frank Sinatra celebrates the pivotal moments of Sinatra's life which solidified his legendary status. This musical revue recalls the essence of the man through the glorious music he sang, beginning in the 1940s as a big band crooner, continuing on to the bright lights of Las Vegas with the Rat Pack in the 1960s, and to his final performances in the 1990s as "The Chairman of the Board."

Moonlight and Magnolias

By Ron Hutchinson
Directed by Andrew Barnicle

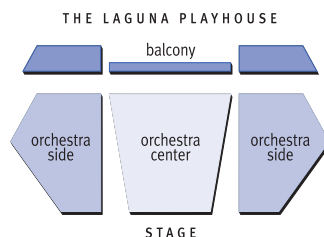

Making movie history is not easy! Just ask film producer David O. Selznick, who stops the filming of Gone with the Wind three weeks into production because he wants a rewrite of the unwieldy script. He hires playwright Ben Hecht to do the job — in only five days! Only one problem: Hecht has never even read the novel. So, Selznick summons Hecht and Gone with the Wind director Victor Fleming to his office, locks the doors and closes the shades. Subsisting on a diet of bananas and peanuts, the three men spend five days crafting a screenplay that will become the blueprint for one of the most successful films of all time. This wildly funny and engaging tale illuminates the behind-the-scenes business of movie-making during the golden age of Hollywood.

November 24 – December 20, 2009
Winter Wonderettes

By Roger Bean
Directed by Roger Bean

The Wonderettes are back! Set six months after the end of The Marvelous Wonderettes, this seasonal sequel finds the girls returning to their hometown for a Holiday celebration with their family and friends, complete with great Wonderette renditions of '60s holiday tunes. Wonderette member Betty Jean is in charge of her company's Christmas party, so naturally the Wonderettes are the logical choice for the entertainment. But when Santa turns up missing, the girls must use their talent and creative ingenuity, plus some great holiday tunes such as "Little Saint Nick" and "It's a Marshmallow World," to rectify their holiday party without the jolly big guy in red. The result is, of course, marvelous! This energetic and entertaining show is guaranteed to delight audiences of all ages.

January 12 – February 7, 2010

Hershey Felder as GEORGE GERSHWIN ALONE

Music and Lyrics by George Gershwin and Ira Gershwin
Book by Hershey Felder
Directed by Joel Zwick

Internationally acclaimed Hershey Felder personifies "America's Composer" and renders an intimate portrait of musical legend, George Gershwin. This multi-award-winning production of Hershey Felder as GEORGE GERSHWIN ALONE, is a musical event for all to experience and ignites an entirely new inside perspective of the historic composer's early background, personal life and artistic genius. With sold out performances around the globe, this is a musical sensation — along with a few surprises — not to be missed!

March 2 – 28, 2010

5th Play

Andrew Barnicle (Artistic Director) has one more exciting production up his sleeve to be announced later — a show that will be as exciting as the rest of the lineup.
